

MRS. KINSELL IS SHOT AND KILLED

Wife of Postoffice Inspector Accidental Victim; Happened in Austin.

Austin, Tex., April 25.—Accidental discharge of a revolver caused the death of Mrs. Ellis Kinsell, wife of Chas. E. Kinsell, United States postoffice inspector, according to statements to the police. The affair occurred at the Kinsell home here. The bullet from a .45-caliber pistol took effect in the left lung, just above the region of the heart. Mr. Kinsell, who had just returned from a trip on official business, was in an adjoining room when he heard the shot. He rushed into the room, but too late to save the life of his wife.

Mrs. Kinsell was 25 years of age and was married last June in El Paso to Mr. Kinsell. The body has been sent to El Paso, Texas, where the mother of the deceased is buried, in which place it will be interred.

A telegram was received by Miss Gertrude Ellis Monday afternoon announcing the accidental death of her sister, Mrs. Charles Kinsell, at Austin, Monday.

Miss Ellis left Monday evening for Big Springs to attend the funeral, which will be held there this afternoon, according to her telegram.

Mrs. Kinsell was the wife of postoffice inspector Kinsell, who came to El Paso frequently on official business and worked up a number of federal court cases here, including the stamp theft case involving Judge Adams, a number of minor cases involving the robbery of small sums from the postoffice.

Mrs. Kinsell was postmaster at "Payson" under Taff, and after the change of administration, she came to El Paso for a short time. She was later married to Inspector Kinsell.

No details of the shooting were given in the Austin dispatch, except that her sister was accidentally shot and killed.

Miss Ellis, sister of Mrs. Kinsell, is a trained nurse in El Paso, but has been working in the basement of the Boston store recently.

GERMAN ARMY OFFICER IS TRIED AS SHIP PLOTTER

New York, April 25.—Robert Fay, a German army lieutenant, accused of conspiracy to destroy ships carrying munitions of war, was placed on trial before United States Judge Howe today, together with his brother-in-law, Walter Schulz, and Paul Daech, indicted with him last November. One of the stories Fay was credited with telling after his arrest in October was that German secret service officers discovered the alleged plot in Germany.

The government expects to call about 15 witnesses and to introduce as exhibits a number of bombs and a model of a mechanism for exploding the bombs in ships. The motion was made by the government.

Engelbert Bronckhorst, Dr. Herbert Kinsell and Max Breiting, also indicted in the case, will be tried later.

CLAIBORNE ADAMS NOMINATED FOR HEAD OF CREDIT ASSN.

Officers of the El Paso Association of Credit Men have been nominated for the next year and the election will be held some time in May.

Claiborne Adams has been nominated for president; Will Crombie, vice president; Herman Andreas, treasurer; H. H. Hunt, B. M. G. Williams, W. H. Shelton, C. A. Brandberg, J. A. Wright, W. H. Lorets, G. P. Putnam, directors.

The nominations were made by the nominating committee, which met recently to prepare its report.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid nixony, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid nixony at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.

HOW THE TROOPS "DIG IN"

Hudspeth's Committee Fails to Get Anyone to Run Against Dan Jackson.

There was "much ado about nothing" at the court house Monday night. All of the "ring" workers, officeholders and hope-to-be officeholders were there to attend the important ceremony of ratifying the nomination for constable of Lou Garner, former chief of police, who was picked for the place at the meeting over Duran's selection in Tuleta Sunday night.

Although a committee, headed by C. R. Hudspeth, was named at the far-named "free and untrammeled" meeting last Monday night to select a candidate to oppose Dan Jackson and to name someone to make the race for county commissioner from the El Paso precinct No. 3, this committee failed to make a report and no candidates for these offices were named, it being understood that no one could be urged to make the race.

A number of leading attorneys are said to have been approached to run against Judge Jackson but all declined. The well-kept effort Monday to get someone to run for commissioner was also a fiasco. The Hudspeth committee asked for more time to consider candidates, but it is understood that its day's work is done.

It was evident from the start that it was to be a Garner meeting. Before Robert L. Holliday, who got up to announce the withdrawal of Charles Gaal from the race, could talk, there were cries throughout the house of "Garner." Again, when Boh had finished the cry went up. Then, when Charles Owen announced the withdrawal of Ed Melus in favor of Garner, the cry was again taken up, this time the supporters of Fred Delgado joining in with cries for their candidate.

The announcement of Walter Williams that he was still in the race and that he was not as had been charged, urged to run by the "anti-ring" organization, was received with some enthusiasm. There was much confusion at these times, prior to the voting, and the chairman had considerable difficulty in restoring order.

Garner received a majority of 22 over the two opposing candidates. The total vote was 42, and of this number Garner received 22, Delgado 15, and Williams 5.

Some Old Tellers.

When chairman T. M. Jones called the meeting to order shortly after 8 o'clock he announced that the tellers appointed at the meeting one week before would again serve. These he announced as Ponder S. Carter, Mason Pollard, John Harper, J. E. Quaid and C. S. T. Putnam.

A. J. Wilson moved that no candidate be declared elected unless he received a majority of all the votes cast and that on the second ballot the low result be dropped. The motion was carried on a viva voce vote.

Boh Holliday then secured recognition from the chairman.

"On behalf of Charlie Gaal," he began—"Lou Garner—Lou Garner," some one called out and the cry was taken up in every part of the house. It was with some difficulty that order was restored.

Mr. Holliday then announced that he had been requested by Charles Gaal to withdraw his name. The announcement was received with enthusiasm and there were more cries of "Lou Garner" and of "Delgado."

Democrats and Tax Receipts.

Ponder S. Carter moved that Democrats not holding a tax receipt refrain from participating in the vote. This motion carried. Chairman Jones then stated that the ballot box be placed in front and that the voters pass up in single file and deposit their ballots. This suggestion was adopted.

Charles Owen announced the withdrawal of Ed Melus from the race in favor of Lou Garner. The announcement was greeted with cries of "Lou Garner" and "Delgado," and some difficulty was found in restoring order.

Walter Williams secured recognition. "I've heard it from a number of sources," he said, "that I was brought out by the 'anti-ring.' I desire to say that I come before this convention as a plain citizen and have a right to enter this race. No 'anti-ring' organization or political faction has anything to do with my candidacy. I want to make the race and I'm going to do so."

His Motion.

Chairman Jones gave instructions how to prepare the ballot, stating that the name of the candidate should go on one side and the full name of the voter on the other side. He then called upon Domingo Montoya to translate the explanation into Spanish. As Montoya mounted a chair there was an apparent misunderstanding as to his purpose and there were repeated cries of "Down, down." Several times he started to speak and each time he was cried down. Finally, the chairman secured order and again explained that there was to be merely Spanish translation of the instructions. With this explanation the translation was made.

INFANTRY TRENCH AT COLONIA DUBLIN, MEXICO

OSTENSIBLY to keep in practice and to prevent the rains from flooding their tents during the rainy season, which is approaching, the American troops in Mexico are "digging in." This is the military term for digging trenches. With the river at their backs, they have formed intrenchments on three sides of the Mormon colony at Colonia Dublin, and mountains guns set up in the intrenchments command all other approaches. This photograph shows a section of the trenches at Colonia Dublin. Note how the trench is cut back around a square just behind the soldier standing in the foreground. This is to prevent the destruction of the men in the trenches from enfilading fire should a section be captured. The Nampulpa camp is "dig in" in the same manner.

Coldwell a Cop.

The balloting then proceeded. There were two or three attempts to break into the line from the front. Judge Pollard Coldwell stood near and forced them back. The change was made that one of them was an "anti-ring" supporter. "I'm a free born citizen," he rejoined, "and have a right to vote."

Vowel Still Running.

While the ballots were being counted several short talks were made. C. L. Vowell, the candidate for county attorney, was the first called upon.

"A week ago tonight we met here and nominated candidates for several offices," said Mr. Vowell. "The will of the people was expressed then, and the results will be shown in the July primaries. They have referred to that convention as 'free and untrammeled.' In a sneering way. But tell me, is there one among you here tonight who has been told how he must vote? Has anybody but your own conscience told you how to vote?"

Nice Men Make Him.

"I have always contended that in El Paso county, as well as in every county in Texas, no clerk or 'ring' or organization of any kind should dominate the voters. Some months ago a club was organized in El Paso. The basis of that club was that it should discourage long rule and that it should guarantee to every voter the right to vote for whom he pleased. Yet in the face of that nine men recently got together—some of them good men, too—and nominated a ticket and forced it upon the members of that club. I don't believe that men like A. P. AIRPLANE'S NIGHT FLIGHT

DE LOYD THOMPSON LOOPING THE LOOP OVER WASHINGTON MONUMENTS

WASHINGTON is still talking about the sensational "air raid" made on the capital a few nights ago by aviator De Lloyd Thompson, without any warning, Thompson descended upon the city under the cover of darkness. He dropped many "bombs," which, fortunately for the city, were mere pyrotechnic displays. But he illustrated, as was his purpose, how easy it would be (provided he could get there, of course) for an enemy to perform a similar trick.

Red fire attached to the tale of the aeroplane marked its course through the sky and a photograph was made of it in this manner.

ARMY CARS MUST CARRY LICENSE NUMBERS NOW

By an agreement between chief of police Don Johnson and the military authorities at Ft. Bliss, license numbers will hereafter be carried by all government and privately owned automobiles attached to the United States army.

This action was taken following an accident Sunday afternoon at Mesa and Missouri streets, in which two persons were seriously injured. At that time it was said that the car that struck the jitney automobile had a placard with the words "U. S. A." on the front.

Lieut. John H. Montgomery, of the 808th Infantry, reported to the police Sunday afternoon that his automobile had been slightly damaged when it collided with the jitney car Sunday afternoon, but that his machine did not carry a card with the letters "U. S. A."
